Alienation-- Land and Revenue--Mangalore Taluk--Panemangalore village--R.S.Nos. 16/3B and 14--Playground--Mopla Board school--resumption--sanction requested.

I request that the Board may be pleased to sanction the resumption of R.S.No. 16/3B and 14 of Panemangalore, measuring and 20 cents respectively which were alienated in favour of the defunct Taluk Board Mangalore in this office order R Dis. 1144/29 dated 13th June 1929, for the purpose of playground for the Mopla Board School, Panemangalore. The plots are not used as a playground and have been rendered unsuitable for that purpose by the digging of pits by villagers for quarrying. There is a small plot which is nearer the school which is used as a playground. The school is on a 'hogs back' and a good deal of expenditure would be required to level a larger playground.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Standing Committee meeting of the South Kanara District Board, dated 29-6-1935.
